TEMPLE BETH ZION

Letter from the President

Fall is upon us. Our children are back in school. And the High Holy Days are behind us as we are now into 5782! Our services at Kleinhans were warmly received, with lots of positive feedback. With all that being said, I really do look forward to being back in our spiritual home at 805 Delaware for next year.

I spoke at Rosh Hashanah and Rabbi Sobel spoke on Yom Kippur about the time to move forward. We can only learn from our past now and look to the future. Enclosed in the High Holiday mailing was a letter from Rabbi Sobel and me, which also discussed some upcoming "Talk to the Board" events. These will be small group discussions, where you can sit with me and members of the board, and share your thoughts with us about the future of TBZ and what you envision.

There are five scheduled dates to begin with and we can always schedule more if there is demand. These first five events are divided between our two buildings and are at varying times of the day to provide as many options for attendance as possible. Please note the following dates:

- Monday, October 4, 7 p.m. at the Broder Center
- Thursday, October 7, noon at 805 Delaware
- Wednesday, October 20, 1 p.m. at the Broder Center
- Tuesday, October 26, 7 p.m. at 805 Delaware
- Wednesday, October 27, 7 p.m. at the Broder Center

We ask you to sign up for the session(s) that fits your schedule best. To register, go to <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0F4CA5AD2AAAF5C25-listening> (we will provide the direct link in the TBZ weekly email), or contact Kristen Keil at kristen@tbz.org or (716) 836-6565, ext. 112.

We are limiting the number of attendees at each session to facilitate conversation and give everyone ample opportunity to participate. I am really looking forward to these meetings, and having meaningful interaction.

My Rosh Hashanah remarks also included my personal commitment that we will continue to strive to earn the support of the congregation that we serve, and that we do not take that support for granted. In addition, I asked for you to join me as we work to restore and enhance our Temple Beth Zion family. Please be on the lookout for these opportunities for you to be involved, and join to us in the next steps forward. After all, we are a family.

As always, if you have ideas or suggestions or questions, we want to hear from you. You can always contact me at president@tbz.org

Letter from the Rabbi

Modeh Ani –
 An Expression of Gratitude

Our Jewish tradition is deeply rooted in the value of expressing gratitude in concrete and meaningful ways.

Each morning, we recite a prayer called: “Modeh Ani” – “I thank you.” When we recite “modeh ani”, we thank God for allowing us to awake once again to a new day, to live our lives with meaning and purpose, with joy and contentment, and to make a difference in this world.

Acknowledgement is the first step of showing gratitude, through our words and deeds. Whether it’s reciting motzi or birkat hamazon after we eat a meal acknowledging God’s gifts or finding some special way to thank those in our lives who have served us well, either through a kind word, a gracious act, the proper social construct, acknowledgment should be a part of our daily lives.

When we experience a moment of meaning, a time of joy, something that should be acknowledged – do we take the time to express our gratitude and appreciation? We don’t need to make grand gestures: a phone call, a simple note, a lovely tip for a good server, a word to the manager when we received exceptional service, a donation in gratitude.

When we express gratitude and give thanks, we place ourselves in relationship to something greater than ourselves. Our prayers of thanksgiving and mindfulness carve channels of gratitude on our hearts, and the more frequently we carve those channels, the more easily our spirits flow in those directions. Sometimes we offer words of gratitude because we are already feeling grateful. And sometimes we come to feel grateful because we are offering words of gratitude.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to all those whom we are all so thankful for making Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur and Sukkot so beautiful, special and meaningful: Everyone in the office: Jeff Clark, Becky Schiefer, Kristen Keil, Ann Marie Randall and Julie Feldman - without your support, hard work and efforts TBZ could not function. Arjan "RJ" Dehima, Albert Trautman and Amhed Salih who make sure everything is set up and functioning “behind the scenes”. David Goldberg, the VPs, the Board of Trustees and all the Committee Chairs and Committee members – your countless hours of volunteer hours, time and energy are

Letter from the Executive Director

The Year that Was

In this season of hope and reflection, here are some of TBZ's wonderful achievements from another wild, complicated, yet ultimately quite successful year:

- Applied for and received a second Draw PPP loan for $191,000, and recently submitted our application for forgiveness. Last year's PPP loan for $189,000 was fully forgiven.
- Submitted a grant request for $300,000 to enhance the security of our buildings.
- Requested an Employee Retention Credit of $83,000 for 2020 payroll expenses.
- Completed our accounting migration to Quickbooks.
- Updated our Wi-Fi strength and security, our server, and nearly every computer in the office.
- Lowered costs by eliminating extraneous phone lines and upgraded our VOIP phones.
- Delivered shalach manos (Purim gift bags) to more than 600 local member families.
- Presented a lively virtual Purim spiel through Rabbi Sobel's connection to the famous Canadian duo Judy & David.
- Partnered with the Buffalo Jewish Federation to enhance TBZ's communications.
- Partnered with Hillel to bring in an intern to manage a special fundraising project.
- Survived a ransomware attack without paying the ransom and losing only a trivial amount of non-sensitive data.
- Updated our proxy voting forms to allow for yes and no votes and email responses.
- Experimented with a variety of fun new fundraising efforts, including two craft fairs, multiple Chiavetta's chicken BBQ dinners, a fish fry, a meat raffle (with kosher options), a trivia night, and more. Some events were more successful or well received than others, but we certainly made quite an effort and brought in a significant amount of funds!
- Deployed a specially crafted La-Bri'ut curriculum for a unique year of remote religious school. Our Director, teachers, and madrichim did a phenomenal job implementing the new content and adapting to the virtual format, and the families who engaged with the program found it incredibly rewarding.
- Established a Community Religious School for the Fall with our friends at Congregation Shir Shalom and Temple Beth Tzedek.

- Reestablished our Summer Celebration at the Transit Valley Country Club. It felt like old times and brought in almost twice the revenue we budgeted. Special thanks to our sponsors and all who attended!
- Hosted nearly a dozen wonderful B'nai Mitzvah celebrations, most virtually and all meaningful. Families loved having a Torah in their home and having relatives from around the globe join in to read honors and offer congratulations from their homes.
- Established a Covid Task Force, guided by a qualified MD, to drive our policies and protocols. We generally followed CDC and Department of Health guidelines, but in the name of pikuach nefesh (the concept that saving a human life is more important than any mitzvot) typically erred on the side of caution. As time went on and more members of our community were vaccinated and positive Covid rates in Erie County decreased, we began to open up and provide opportunities for our members to gather and worship safely in-person.
- Created a History Corner on our website where we've posted stories about TBZ families.
- Repaired severe water leaks and a minor gas leak at Broder.
- Properly disposed of thousands of very old prayer books, clearing space in the Fink Auditorium which has been unusable for years. Plans are in place to remove more of the unneeded items in the coming weeks.
- Covid brought an abrupt end to our PALS program, but we established a relationship with The Park School and the Buffalo Jewish Federation to ensure PALS students were given the opportunity to continue their Jewish education. We donated and sold thousands of dollars of program supplies and applied much of the proceeds to scholarships.
- Applied for and were accepted into the Grinspoon Foundation's Life & Legacy Program, brought to Buffalo by a joint effort between the Buffalo Jewish Federation and the Foundation for Jewish Philanthropies. This 4-year journey is just getting underway and will help us build our endowment to support TBZ well into the future.
- Signed JFS to a 15 year lease with a commitment to invest more than $1 million into our Delaware facility. Special thank you to Ken Rogers for leading this effort.
- In lieu of arranging and delivering gift baskets during Covid, our Caring Community sent gift cards for Rosh Hashanah then a Chanukah album for the holiday.
- Worked with the Center for Jewish Engagement and Learning to conduct a Belonging Assessment of TBZ's policies and culture and will use their subsequent report and guidance to promote diversity and inclusion throughout our organization.

- Provided dozens of meals for those in need through our support of the annual Turkey Basket project and a special Passover initiative.
- Rabbi Sobel hosted a well-attended Picnic in the Park as the congregation's first chance to meet her in person.
- Rabbi Sobel arranged and led a series of informative lectures on Israel.

I am proud of and grateful to my team in the office for carrying the synagogue through so many unusual challenges, to our past and present leadership for their ongoing support of the organization, and to our clergy team for continuing to deliver meaningful services and guiding us along our spiritual path. TBZ has an exceptionally strong core and it bodes well for our bright future.

L'Shanah Tovah,
Jeff Clark

Prayerbook Burial

In accordance with traditional Jewish law, our genizah (hundreds of copies of outdated High Holy Day prayerbooks, tattered bibles and other similar materials) has been buried. We are grateful for the combined efforts of Larry Rubin, Mitch Steinhorn of Amherst Memorial Chapel, and Elmlawn Cemetery. In addition, Jeff Clark, Kristen Keil, and Arjan "RJ" Dehima and his lovely family, all assisted in the sorting, packing and loading of all the materials. Thank you!

essential to our sacred work. To Amelida Weinmann, Susan Goldberg and the Ritual Committee – the High Holy Days demand more time, energy and effort than anyone can possibly imagine, and they do it all with grace, ease and calm. To Judy Henn, our Clergy Associate - for her hard work, dedication, time and effort making sure that Rosh Hashanah at Becker Farms and Yom Kippur Family Services at Kleinhans were moving and meaningful for our families. To Cantor Ted Labow, Dr. David Bond, the musicians and the choir members - for your beautiful and meaningful music. To everyone who read Torah and participated in the services. To Roman Mekinulov and Sara Schultz for leading special programs on Yom Kippur afternoon. To Roman for his beautiful cello on Kol Nidre. For our shofar blowers: Michael Bruckheimer, Josh Goldberg, Art Lorbeer and Peter Weinmann – you enabled us to “hear the call” better than anyone. To our past presidents – for their years of wisdom and sage advice, always ready to support TBZ when asked. Your presence on Kol Nidre is a testament to your dedication and commitment to our community. To all of the ushers and greeters who helped in so many ways. To Art Lorbeer who built a portable ark with very little notice for the “bima” at Kleinhans, and Wendee Lorbeer, who fashioned the lovely curtains for the ark. To Larry Scheur, who schlepped his equipment out to Becker Farms and donated his time and expertise to help make it a special service for our families. To those who submitted original artwork and poetry – your creative efforts personalized our worship experience in unique ways. To Aaron Pieri who advanced the PowerPoint visual “tefilah” slides during all of our Kleinhans services, enabling the service to be visible both on the large screen at Kleinhans and at home for those who were virtual. To Ellen Weintraub, for proofing the Book of Remembrance. To Sisterhood, for beautifully decorating the Sukkah at Broder and at Delaware – making sure we have a festive and colorful celebration. For all of you and so much more, I say: “Modeh Ani!” (If I have inadvertently left someone off this list, during this period of forgiveness, I ask your forgiveness). Shana Tova!

Rabbi Sharon L. Sobel

Dear Friends,

We are honored to be Kol Nidre chairs this year. We joined Temple Beth Zion 18 years ago because of the history and stability of the synagogue, the diversity of its membership, and the educational programming. Having both been raised in an active, faith community, it was important to us to establish a consistent, meaningful Jewish community for our future children.

For those of you that have children or grandchildren, consider giving for them, for the next generation, so that they may have the same experience as we did in being surrounded by a thriving, faith community. During this time of reflection, let us consider how we can participate, contribute, give back to the community that has given us so much.

Let us all take ownership of the future of our synagogue. Our TBZ community would be nothing without each of you, without all of us. Our temple cannot be sustained by only a select few – it must be all of us that are responsible for its success. The money that is raised through the Kol Nidre Campaign serves many purposes, but most importantly, each dollar we raise allows us to care for our own Temple family: your donation keeps the lights on and the doors open, supports our clergy and funds educational programming for all ages. We believe in the power of transparency, and so you might appreciate knowing that in 2018-2019, the Campaign raised about $95,000 with the average donation of $247.50 and the median donation of $100. The last few years have been challenging for many of us, but the typical contribution amounts have remained the same and the average campaign total across the last 3 years is $83,000. Because this congregation belongs to us all, we are seeking 100% participation with a goal of $90,000 this year. Every gift matters.

We hope that you, like us, face this New Year with excitement - a clean slate with so many possibilities! L'Shana Tova!

COMMUNITY RELIGIOUS SCHOOL
BUFFALO, NY

From the Directors

By the time this temple bulletin lands in your mailbox, Buffalo's new Community Religious School will already have celebrated its Opening Day and first full month of Sunday morning sessions!

During these opening weeks, we hope to have begun forming the relationships in our classrooms that will sustain us through the rest of the school year and beyond.

Some of our students will have learned a little more about the fall holiday cycle than they knew before. Some will have gotten their hands messy making Rosh Hashanah or Sukkot arts and crafts projects. Some will have made a new friend or two, or maybe reconnected with someone they haven't seen in several months. Some will have brushed up on their Alef-Bet or Hebrew reading skills, enjoyed learning a song they didn't know before, or begun meeting online with their 1-on-1 Hebrew tutor.

We hope that our parents are smiling as well. We've never had to bar parents from our doors before, and it doesn't feel great to have to do it now. We hope that our new drop-off and pick-up routines have worked reasonably well and that nobody drove out of the CSS parking lot in a rage. We hope that when you ask your kids "What did you do today in religious school?" that you actually get an answer. (Believe us... nobody comes for 2-1/2 hours and does NOTHING, even though they might say it.)

We've all heard the African proverb that teaches, "It takes a village to raise a child." As Rabbi Jesse Olitzky (one of The Forward's list of "America's Most Inspiring Rabbis") reflects... "The ikar, or essence, of this proverb is that as parents we have a large role and responsibility in shaping the types of men and women our children become, but the community around us, the people we surround ourselves with, clergy and teachers, friends and dedicated lay leaders, ultimately have just as much of a role in shaping who they become."

Parents, clergy, teachers, friends and dedicated lay leaders have all worked to make the dream of a combined religious school in Buffalo a reality. We are grateful for your vision, your guidance, your time, and your commitment. Our aim was to create a school where all of our children feel welcome, where all students will discover what it means to be Jewish and to live Jewishly, where everyone finds respect and community, and where all can gather together and experience the joy of Jewish learning! Ken y'hi ratzon, may it be so.

Wearing masks and observing social distancing, students in the Community Religious School were greeted on their first day by kind and smiling volunteers, who led them into the sanctuary to meet their teachers, classmates, and other classroom helpers. Led in song by "Shirah Zack" Steinberg, whom many know from TBZ, Camp Centerland, and the Jewish Community Center, they were introduced to two Co-Directors, three rabbis, and a host of volunteer teen madrichim.

Becker Farms 2021

It was a beautiful day for the Rosh Hashanah Alternate Service at Becker Farms. Judy Henn and Sara Schultz teamed up again for a lovely and meaningful service.

Thank you Sara Schultz, Larry Scheur, Becky Schiefer, Kristen Keil and Kara Kane for all your work in preparing for and helping on this special day. Thank you also to Amelida Weinmann for chairing the event and the Weinmann family for donating puffy Torahs and plastic shofars, which were given to the children after the service.

tbz Honorable Menschen

To all those who helped assemble our High Holy Day mailings: Marilyn Schillroth, Ginny Ellis, Sharon Winer, Susan & Dennis Nadler, Ken Graber and Norm Weingarten.

To Eli Honig for troubleshooting the network at the Delaware Building. Eli's insight and teaching is tremendously helpful.

To Leslie Garfinkel and the Caring Community for lifting the spirits of our TBZ members who are suffering from loss or otherwise facing difficult times in their lives. In 2020, Caring Community recipients received a gift card for Rosh Hashanah and then a music album for Chanukah. This year, again in lieu of arranging and delivering bags during Covid, our Caring Community once again distributed gift cards for Rosh Hashanah. We also thank Ann Marie Randall for helping to facilitate these important projects.
