Letter from the President

Visiting the Holy Land

Ah, Israel!

This first year as President of Temple Beth Zion has flown by. I've talked previously about many of the different situations I've encountered, and how meaningful each and every one has been.

A few months ago, during the recent war between Israel and Hamas in Gaza, Rabbi Pokras called me and asked me if I was able to travel to Israel. It was a Tuesday evening with a Sunday departure. Synagogue leaders from across the United States were being asked to gather in Israel to show support with our brothers and sisters there. There were several reasons I couldn't go. Beginning with work obligations and made definite by the fact that my passport had expired.

So I couldn't go at that moment. But it opened (re-opened) the thought process about prospectively making my Aliyah. I've thought about going to Israel off and on much of my life. From the stories in Sunday school, seeing pictures from family and friends and, of course, movies and television, there's been the draw of seeing the ancient homeland of my ancestors. The movie "Exodus" (1960) was awe-inspiring - and terrifying. My parents visited somewhat late in their lives, and loved every minute.

As an adult, I've been very much conflicted. The curiosity and pride always counterbalanced with questioning Israeli politics and policies - and fear. I've realized we cannot conflict politics with the desire for the country to succeed and flourish. And they don't change the fact of the history of this most special place on earth.

Well, Rabbi Pokras is as good a salesman as he is a teacher - and I'm joining him and a group from TBZ, Shir Shalom and Beth Tzedek at the end of June. I am incredibly excited. Many of you have already made this trip, and I'm thrilled I will "join the club."

I'm sure I'll always be conflicted about the politics and policies; and we should continue to fight for justice and equality in Israel, but I can't wait to see the Holy Land for myself.

Letter from the Director of Education

On any given day, we might count our steps, take a head count or count down the days till a special occasion. We recently experienced the time between Pesach and Shavuot, known as the Counting of the Omer. Our tradition teaches us that 50 days after leaving Egypt, the Jewish people received the Torah on Mount Sinai. During this time of the Omer, we fulfill the mitzvah of counting up daily, 7 days for 7 weeks, from day 1 to day 49.

Rabbi Shraga Simmons (formerly of Buffalo, now of Jerusalem) wrote an article titled "Making the Omer Count," where he asked, "Why do we count up from Pesach to Shavuot? Why did God wait 50 days after the Israelites left Egypt before giving the Torah?" He answered that after years of slavery, the Israelites were not yet spiritually ready to receive the Torah.

Talmudic commentators say that the days of Counting the Omer are a favorable time for acquiring higher spiritual levels. We are told to take an accounting each day to ready ourselves so that at the end of the Omer process, we will have experienced a journey of self-awareness and self-improvement and be ready, once again, to receive the Torah.

This season, I signed up for a daily Omer email organized by Hillel International. Each evening, I received a daily quote, with a question to ponder, along with the blessing and daily count to recite. For example:

- ◆ "Wonder, rather than doubt, is the root of all knowledge." (Abraham Joshua Heschel) How will you incorporate wonder into your learning today?
- ◆ "No great achiever - even those who made it seem easy - ever succeeded without hard work" (Rabbi Jonathan Sacks). Where could you be working harder today?

These brief quotes and questions helped make my counting of the Omer a personal and spiritual accounting and not just a ritual.

What does the Counting of the Omer have to do with honoring our teachers? Here is what I found when I looked up the word "count" and its many different meanings:

- * I count on the teachers, assistants and madrichim in our schools. They arrive ready to inspire their students. I can depend on them to follow schedules, lead creative and meaningful activities and know and understand each child's strengths and learning styles
- * When we count our blessings we are reminded to "stop and smell the roses" and to give thanks for all that is good around us. We are taught that we should count 100 blessings every day. I can reach my daily hundred blessings, by counting the teachers and madrichim I work with. They are true blessings!
- * The Hebrew root for "to count" (lispor) is the same as to recount or retell (l'saper). Our teachers retell the ancient and modern stories of the Jewish people. They share their own stories, making learning personal and accessible.
- * Most importantly - our teachers count! They make a difference in the lives of the children they teach. What they teach matters and is important in ensuring the future of our Jewish community.

I am grateful for what our teachers do, of who they are and what they give. Our teachers are a blessing and truly make a difference!

SUMMER CELEBRATION

Join Us for a Great Day

Make plans now to join us on August 10 for the Summer Celebration featuring our 17th Annual Golf Tournament and 5th Annual Wine Tour. This event raises vital funds for education programs at TBZ.

The day begins at Transit Valley Country Club with a fabulous lunch on the newly renovated outdoor patio. At noon, those on the wine tour board a luxury air-conditioned coach to tour wineries in Niagara County. Temple sommelier and Executive Director Mark Criden leads this popular tour.

The golf tournament has a 12:30 shotgun start with 18 holes on this premier golf course. Our golfers love the "best in foursome" format that allows them to play their own ball.

Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres follow the wine tour and golf tournament. The event is capped off with a delicious dinner and rousing auctions in the country club dining room.

Join us for the wine tour (space is limited!), on the golf course, or just come for cocktails and dinner.

Deny Adelman and David Goldberg co-chair this amazing and highly successful event, and they invite you to join the fun. If you are interested in participating, volunteering and/or being a sponsor for this event, please contact Mark Criden or Julie Feldman at 836-6565

TBZ Pride

We are all created in the image of God – b'etzelem Elohim. And Temple Beth Zion will proudly present that message to thousands of people with our float and marching contingent at the Pride Parade on June 7.

Our celebration of Pride Month in June concludes with a Pride Shabbat Service on Friday, June 26. Join Rabbi Scheldt, Cantor Myers and lay congregants in a special service celebrating our commitment to equal rights for gay, lesbian, transgender, bisexual and questioning people. The service will begin at 6 p.m. in the Sanctuary and will include a bon voyage blessing for travelers on the Israel trip that departs on June 27.

If you prefer to attend the Classical Service at 7 p.m., Rabbi Pokras will address the theme of B'etzelem Elohim in his sermon.

Also, mark your calendar for Thursday, July 16, when TBZ's Kulanu Group will sponsor a trip to the Bisons baseball game as part of "Out at the Ballpark," celebrating the vibrancy of Western New York's Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Questioning Community during the team's game against the Columbus Clippers at Coca-Cola Field (7:05 p.m.). For more information contact the Temple Office at 836-6565, or check the Temple website at www.tbz.org.

Checking New Year's Resolutions

As we end the month of June and cross into July, we begin the second half of 2015. How is the "this year I will get my household in order" resolution going?

Maybe the first six months of this year were spent on home projects, or maybe just on keeping the driveway clear and avoiding frostbite. In any event, you still have six more months to get your financial house in order before the ball drops and we start singing Auld Lang Syne. With weather in the 70s, it sounds like a long time away, but it's not.

This is a gentle reminder for you to prepare, as best as possible, for the future. If that future includes a mention of Temple Beth Zion in a bequest, will or gift of life insurance, we would be grateful. If you are interested in hearing about the possibilities, contact Mark Criden at 836-6565 or Peter Fleischmann at the Foundation for Jewish Philanthropies at 882-1166.

tbz Brotherhood

Art Festival Parking at TBZ

We want to thank the Brotherhood members and the Temple members in general for their support of Brotherhood this year and look forward to their continued support into the next programming year.

Brotherhood's biggest fundraiser of the year is this month, when we will again be using the Temple parking lot to park cars during the Allentown Art Festival, both on Saturday and Sunday, June 13 and 14. Why not give yourself a treat that weekend and visit the Allentown Festival. Parking will again be $5, the same as it has been the last five years. As you well know, we're in a great spot convenient to the festival. We look forward to seeing you then. Please keep in mind that your parking fee is actually a contribution to Brotherhood and support of the Temple. All Brotherhood's funds go back to the Temple.

We have a dedicated core of Brotherhood member's who volunteer each year to staff the parking lot, direct traffic and assist those using the lot. We can always use some more help and welcome some new faces. We need volunteers at each parking lot entrance, Delaware, Barker and Linwood, and start to receive parkers at the lot about 10:30 a.m. each day. If you would like to assist this year, please contact Norm Weingarten at Weincsw@verizon.net or Ken Graber at Kamas5@aol.com to volunteer.

Thank you again for your help and support.

Sign your child up today for the fantastic fun and learning at Temple Beth Zion's Play And Learn School. Summer PALS includes four weeks beginning July 20, July 27, August 3 and August 10.

2 year-olds attend on Tuesday/Thursday from 9 to 11:30 a.m.
3 to 5 year-olds attend on Monday/Wednesday/Friday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Call Melissa Milch-Klein at 836-6565, Ext. 139, or email pals@tbz.org for more information. Registration is also available for the 2015-2016 school year.

Helping PALS Understand

Our PALS students have a curiosity about the world and the people in it that knows no bounds. After seeing Physical Therapist Mary Lynne from the Olmsted Early Education Program working with a student, the children asked about "the stick" they were using. Mary Lynne took the time to explain and demonstrate the cane that children with limited or no vision use to guide their way. Our PALS learned why there is a ball at the end of the cane, how to feel the difference between a tile floor and carpet and how to position their other hand to help them find their way. A big thank-you to Mary Lynne for answering questions and for taking the time to help our children understand the tools and techniques used by those with limited sight.

Confirmation 2015

A (Mock) Wedding to Remember

Fifth Grade students in our Religious School held a beautiful mock wedding on Sunday, May 10. Students participated as Bride and Groom, Rabbi and wedding party. Parents, grandparents and siblings attended as well. The fifth grade curriculum includes learning about life cycle events, and the mock wedding is the perfect opportunity for participatory learning.

Thank You, One and All

As I write this article, TBaZY is making plans to elect next year's Cabinet of Board Members, which will be announced in the July Bulletin. On behalf of TBZ, I'd like to thank this year's Board Members for their service — and for patiently guiding me in my first year as their advisor. Thank you Lexi Boehnlein, (President), Julia Helfman (Programming Vice President, Eva Muir (Social Action Vice President), Stephanie Pokras and Alex Kane (Religious and Cultural co-Vice Presidents), Andrew Oestreicher (Membership Vice President) and Sophia Kaplan (Communications Vice President). It has given me great joy to get to know you and to be able to work with you over the past year, and everyone at Temple Beth Zion is very proud of your commitment to Jewish life and learning.

I'd also like to thank Jackie Kalter for her work with our young people and for attending NFTY events to guide and support our youth group. She will continue to be very involved with TBaZY next year.

Plans for the summer are in full swing. As I mentioned in last month's Bulletin, Eva Muir, TBaZY's Social Action Vice President, will be attending the Mitzvah Corps summer program in New Orleans. Zenobia Fried will join her, and both Lexi Boehnlein and Andrew Oestreicher will attend NFTY Kutz Camp in Warwick, New York. I know all of them will return with ruach (spirit) and energy to help our new board build next year's TBaZY events and membership.

I'd also like to take this opportunity as the school year draws to a close to thank the parents of Grades 3-7 TBaZY Jr members. You have given us the gift of getting to know your children and guide their Jewish futures, and you also helped out tirelessly with TBaZY Jr events. For our year-end TBaZY Jr event, we will be attending a Bison home game against the Charlotte Knights on June 14 at 1 p.m. Everyone and his/her family members are invited to get together to celebrate a great year of youth events at Temple Beth Zion. Please contact me at youth@tbz.org or (716) 308-9285 to reserve your tickets at $10.75 per person. This is special reserved group seating for groups of at least twenty people. The deadline for this pricing is Monday, June 8. More information will come with your Religious School updates. We also know that our opening TBaZY Jr event next year will celebrate Sukkot on September 27 after Religious School — save the date!

It has been a year of growth and accomplishment for our TBaZY youth, and they in turn have helped me grow and learn in my first year as advisor. Over the summer we will be making plans for next year's events. I can't wait to see you then! If you want to be involved, have suggestions or ideas, I am always available at (716) 308-9285 or by email to youth@tbz.org

Thank You

To Dr. Philip Glick for creating a beautiful mezuzah for the Delaware building office of Cantor Penny Myers. The mezuzah was handcrafted from a banksia pod, which is an Australian pine cone. A special blessing and mezuzah hanging took place before services on May 8.

A MUSSAR THOUGHT...

On Menuchat HaNefesh/Equanimity

When your emotions are triggered, recall that some outcomes can't be predicted or controlled and return your mind and heart to an even keel.

"Peace of mind is one of the greatest pleasures a person can have; lack of peace of mind can make one's life constant torture."

- Rabbi Simcha Zissel Ziv, The Alter of Kelm

Thank you to Elaine Higgins, Kara Kane, Robyn Meyer, Joanne Raab and Amy and Scott Schaefer, who helped make this year's Mother's Day Flower Sale a sellout. Thank you to all those who supported the sale by purchasing beautiful flowers and plants.

Fund Donations

Looking for a way to honor a friend's birthday? Trying to think of a gift for a special anniversary for a couple that has no room for more tchotchkes? Please consider making a tribute donation in honor, memory or appreciation of that special person or event.

When you select a particular fund, your gift is targeted toward an area or areas that are most meaningful to you or to those you are honoring. Donations can be made by using the form below or by calling Ann Marie Randall at 836-6565, Ext. 111. Secure online donations can be made on the TBZ website at www.tbz.org by clicking on the "giving" tab.

Putting Learning Into Action

Throughout the year, parents asked how they could get involved and put their learning into action. On Sunday, May 3, fifteen families participated in three off-site projects: volunteering at the SPCA, visiting the residents at Weinberg, and cleaning up and planting at the Amherst Town Park.

The photos below show 1) cleaning up at the park, 2) pride in the artwork done together with residents at Weinberg Campus.
