

tbz Letter from the President

On February 26 we began the month of Adar. In "The Happiness of Adar", Rabbi Lawrence A Hoffman explains that, "When Adar begins, the Rabbis say, "We increase happiness." How can our tradition command happiness? There are many reasons to not be happy. There are many reasons to feel sadness. As I am writing this, the world has recently learned of the tragic passing of basketball legend Kobe Bryant, his 13 year-old daughter and seven other souls. My heart is heavy from this and so many other troubles in the world.

Rabbi Hoffman suggests that Adar returns us to the basics. That whatever our current situation, we are "capable of adding to the world's stock of love, compassion, and charity; honor, humor, and wholeness: the things that really matter..."

We have loads of reasons to be happy during the month of Adar with TBZ and the greater Jewish community. Almost every page of this issue highlights opportunities for celebration and fun.

At Purim we are encouraged to dress up in festive costumes. The Torah portion for the first week of March is Parsha Tetzaveh. Much of the parsha describes how the sacred space of the Tabernacle is to be decorated, and what clothing the priests should wear. In, "You Look Marvelous", Rabbi Joe Eiduson (yes, the Joey Eiduson who was one year behind me at TBZ Hebrew School and our Rabbi Educator in the 90's) asked the question, "Why was so much time and space dedicated to the outward, external dress of the High Priests? Why not focus instead on the inward qualities necessary to lead and serve the Children of Israel? The suggestion was that the garments served to remind the Priest that he must make the ideal of holiness the constant guide of his life."

In "High Moral Standards for Our Leaders, and Ourselves", Rabbi Sarah Bassin speaks about the danger of turning people into symbols. "Everyone of us has our own story of a hero who let us down....It takes an emotional toll to have our beloved icons fall and expectations crushed." She urges us to hold fast to our expectations - of our priests, our politicians, our athletes, and, I would add, your TBZ board. It is an honor to be one of the group of dedicated individuals who do the sacred work of taking care of our congregation. This is work that really matters, and while it is often challenging, I believe there is happiness in being a part of something much bigger than myself.

Letter from the Clergy Associate

It's Adar – be happy! Who doesn't love a holiday which commands us to be happy? Purim is coming, with all of its costumes and songs and games and yummy hamantaschen. We're told that we must do four things to celebrate Purim. First, we must tell the story of Queen Esther and how her bravery saved the Jews of Persia. Second, we must send gifts of food to at least one friend or relative because Purim is a time of love and friendship. Contrary to popular opinion, it's Purim, not Chanukah, which is the real gift-giving holiday. The third mitzvah is to give gifts of money to the poor. This act of caring and compassion not only helps those in need but allows them to fulfill the mitzvah of giving tzedakah, as well. Finally, we're commanded to eat a festive meal. We're Jews, after all!

The Book of Esther is one of only two books in the Torah in which God is not mentioned. The story of Queen Esther is one of hidden miracles, acts of bravery and the power of one person (and a woman, no less!) to change the world. Far from being a funny story for children, it is a tale that celebrates the strength of human action. The Purim story can also be seen in a more modern context. There are threats of genocide and destruction in many parts of the world today. It's easy to feel powerless and overwhelmed. So it feels good – it feels necessary - to be reminded of Esther's bravery and of her human actions, fueled by faith, in a story where God is concealed. It gives us hope that we too can do our share of Tikkun Olam, the repair of the world. As Margaret Mead, an American anthropologist, once said, "Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed people can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has."

Refugee Shabbat

Friday, March 20, at 7 p.m.

805 Delaware Avenue

The refugee story is a shared experience that touched everyone within the Jewish Community. For 156 years, Jewish Family Service has been a refuge for those in need, including those seeking safety at our shores.

Jewish Family Service’s work is informed by the Jewish and American tradition of welcoming the stranger and the belief that together, we are stronger. JFS is proud to resettle and support refugees in partnership with HIAS, founded as Hebrew Immigration Aid Society. Molly Carr, President and CEO of JFS, will join us on March 20 when we show our support and honor our history and shared experiences as refugees.

Join TBZ, JFS and HIAS in celebrating our refugee heritage and standing up for today’s refugees during the National Refugee Shabbat.

Ritual Committee

The Temple Beth Zion Ritual Committee addresses TBZ’s Ritual policies and practices, and also helps to support the TBZ Clergy and Staff in coordinating and facilitating TBZ’s major holiday celebrations. The Committee meets as often as needed and at least six times yearly. If you are interested in joining, or if you have concerns, thoughts, or suggestions, please contact Anna Marie Richmond, Chair, at (716) 854-1100, or annamrichmond@msn.com.

Mitzvah Opportunity

The Caring Community will be making Purim baskets and delivering them to our members at nursing homes and those who find it hard to get around. This is a wonderful opportunity for all Religious School students and their families! We really need your help with baking and delivering baskets!

This is a wonderful mitzvah and the recipients of the baskets are very appreciative!

Please call Leslie Garfinkel at 839-0079, if you are able to participate. Baskets will be assembled with goodies on Friday, March 6 at 9:30 a.m. Baskets can be picked up on Sunday, March 8 for delivery after Religious School.

Engagement Committee News

As the calendar inches towards spring, it is very full of joyful activities to participate in at Temple Beth Zion. The annual Purim Spiel on March 10, followed by Comedy Night at “Rob’s Comedy Playhouse” on March 15 - two nights of laughter, food, fun, and friends. In between, on March 13, our board president, Julie Dressler Weinberg, will lead a storytelling workshop before our Spirituality Shabbat service. And, continuing our ability to get together and enjoy each other’s company will be another Shabbat dinner in the home of one of our congregants on March 20, and a Bagel Brunch at Bagel Jay’s on March 22. Wow! Such a joyful month!

According to Rabbi Sacks, “There is a unique law in the approach to Purim. Mishe-nichnas Adar marbim be-simcha. “From the beginning of Adar, we increase in joy.” It is stated in the Talmud (Ta’anit 29a), and is based on the passage in the Megillah (Esther 9:21-22) in which Mordechai sends a letter throughout the land instructing Jews “to observe the fourteenth and fifteenth day of the month of Adar, every year – the days on which the Jews obtained rest from their enemies and the month which for them was turned from sorrow into gladness and from mourning into a holiday.” That is what we do on Purim. The joy, the merrymaking, the food, the drink, the whole carnival atmosphere, are there to allow us to live with the risks of being a Jew – in the past, and tragically in the present also – without being terrified, traumatized or intimidated. It is the most counter-intuitive response to terror, and the most effective. Terrorists aim to terrify. To be a Jew is to refuse to be terrified. The Jewish way to avoid being intimidated is marbim be-simcha, to increase our joy.

Our community is looking for joy and connection, and this will continue through monthly events. But let’s not wait for these events to form connections or to experience joy together. Let’s find connection by laughing with others, or sharing a meal, or sharing a ride with those who need one to get to an event.

Upcoming Engagement Committee Events:

Friday, March 20 (6 p.m. - 8 p.m.) Shabbat Dinner Club at the home of Clareanne Silver. Please contact Jody at jagoldstein827@gmail.com for more information and to RSVP.

Sunday, March 22 (10 a.m. - 11 a.m.) Bagel Brunch. Bagel Jays 100 Plaza Drive (Hopkins and Klein). This no host meal is organized by Jody Goldstein.

Please contact me at any time with questions, comments, or just to say, “hi.” I want to connect, and hopefully share some joy, with each and every one of you.

From the Director

What does the Director of the Religious School do? As part of their synagogue unit, our 2nd Graders are discovering who works at TBZ and what they do. Their teacher, Jessica Bommer, invited me to speak to her class, which got me thinking... what DO I do here at TBZ?

More than anything, I make sure we have a faculty. We are blessed with dedicated, creative, capable, caring teachers. It is wonderful to visit Religious School classrooms and see the interesting and meaningful activities our teachers present. We are also lucky to have an amazing cohort of high school Madrichim guided very well by Tammy VanWey and Beth Shapiro. It is my job to hire, guide, communicate with, and support our teachers.

Of course, we also need students! I am part of the team that meets with prospective new families to answer their questions and convince them that coming to TBZ's Religious School is in their child's best interest. I also work to make connections with our current parents and students so that everyone here feels welcomed, valued, and heard. A school also needs a curriculum. As Director I decide what topics will be taught at each grade level. With input from the teachers and others, I select the books and other materials that we will use.

I also determine what Specials and other events to include in our curriculum. What activities will benefit our students the most? I recently redesigned our calendar and schedules so that students and teachers can enjoy the most valuable experiences possible here. Figuring out which classes need to do what, where, when, and for how often was like playing an enormous game of Sudoku!

Running our weekly Tefillah (prayer service) is another important task. Many families don't attend services very often. But, without regular exposure to and participation in Reform Jewish practice, our children won't grow to understand or appreciate it. I work to make Tefillah joyful and engaging for all of our students, and Zack Steinberg's guitar playing and song-leading adds wonderful Ruach (spirit) to the experience!

I spend a lot of my time writing. I write articles like this one for the TBZ Bulletin and the Jewish Journal. To ensure that they are aware of what their children are doing here, I produce a colorful Letter from the Director that is emailed to all parents after each session.

Planning special events is challenging, but exciting. How to present a program for kids from 5 to 13 years old that teaches them about a holiday or a Mitzvah and holds their attention for an hour? By providing engaging activities that appeal to students of different interests and learning styles. See the pics on this page from our Tu B'Shevat Celebration!

L'Shalom, may all your journeys be towards peace,
Beth

Sunday Snapshots

TBaZY and our Junior Youth Groups are gearing up for a busy and fun-filled season! The annual Purim Carnival set-up will be at Congregation Shir Shalom, Saturday evening, March 7. The Purim carnival is Sunday, March 8, 11 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. We are looking for 8th-12th graders to join us for the set-up and to run games at the carnival. Please let either of us know if you are available to help out.

We are continuing (on Sundays) to sell TBZ hats and reusable grocery bags to help support TBaZY teens. Hats are $12 each and reusable bags are 1 for $7 or 3 for $20.

With the help of our Madrichim on Sundays, TBaZY is continuing to collect new and gently used books for all ages to donate to the Buffalo Public Schools and Friends of Night People. We will continue to collect books on Sundays through the end of March or, if you are at TBZ Broder Center during the week, please feel free to place them in the barrel/box in the hallway. Thank you for your help!

Tammy and I are always available to provide information about all of our youth groups and are happy to chat about our youth engagement opportunities.

Please feel free to call us at 867-8541 or email us at Bshapiro44@gmail.com.

Beth and Tammy

As we draw closer to Purim, I think about the middah (value) of simcha - happiness. In the Jewish tradition, one of the reasons that we celebrate all of the holidays, from Purim to even Thanksgiving, is to experience true happiness.

A wonderful reminder of where we can find simcha is in last blessing of sheva brachot, which are the seven blessings said during the marriage ceremony. In this final blessing, which is normally sung aloud, we ask G-d to always bless us with "the songs of the youth."

So as our joy is fulfilled through celebrating Purim, and as our happiness is replenished when remembering and practicing the middah of simcha, I would like to share some tips for finding your daily dose of simcha from the preschool perspective:

1. Sing any song that makes your heart happy- a current favorite in our classroom is Peace Like A River
2. Find pleasure in the process, not only the product. Crafts, projects, etc. do not always turn out as intended, but it's amazing how much you can learn in the process of doing
3. Don't be afraid to get messy - thank goodness for washing machines! Moments happen once, indulge in them completely, even if it means getting messy in the process.
4. Read a good book - cuddling up with a loved one and reading a great book is always a wonderful way to bring joy into your life
5. PLAY - give yourself the permission to play! Swing on the swings with your children or grandchildren, play with a beloved pet in the park, go sledding, play a board game! The possibilities are endless.

Zahava Fried, PALS-Kadimah Director

Six students in our 2020 Confirmation class journeyed with Rabbi Freirich and Religious School Assistant Director, Kara Kane, to participate in L'Taken with the RAC (Religious Action Center) of Reform Judaism. An action-packed weekend of seminars and activities, Shabbat services, visits to monuments and museums, and real prep for lobbying was capped off by three visits to the offices of two of our US Senators and Representative Brian Higgins.

Among Sisterhood's February activities were Mahjong lessons led by Amy Heumann and Bagel making lessons given by Sandy Wolchok.

Holy Rollers Reactivating

The Holy Rollers are a group of congregants who work on maintaining and preserving our Torah Scrolls. After a bit of a hiatus, we are again working to air out, inspect, and clean Temple Beth Zion's scrolls. Also, there are opportunities to learn how to perform minor repairs. For more information, and to volunteer, please contact Rabbi Freirich by telephoning the Temple Office, or via email at rabbi@tbz.org.

Kulanu

TBZ'S Kulanu group is working with the Jewish Community LGBTQ+ Inclusion Committee chaired by Janet Gunner. Working with Mike Steklof, the Jewish Federation's Director of Teen Engagement and Inclusion, the group is planning a number of coordinated initiatives. This year the LGBTQ+ Inclusion Committee and the liberal Jewish Congregations of Western New York are planning for a joint Pride Weekend celebration on June 5-7. We are looking to bring in a guest speaker for the Friday evening Pride service at Temple Beth Zion, and the Saturday morning Pride service at Temple Beth Tzedek. We are also planning to once again march in the Pride Parade, and to staff a table at the Pride Celebration at Canalside. Stay tuned!

Edward & Sharon Schwartz, together with the Board of Trustees, thank everyone who has made the 2019-2020 Kol Nidre Campaign a success. We are close to reaching our goal for the Campaign. If you have not yet made a donation, we ask you to do so now. Donations can be made by
