Letter from the President

Dear Friends,

I am pleased to announce that on March 5, the congregation confirmed the appointment of Cantor Susan Lewis Friedman to become the Cantor of Temple Beth Zion starting in July 2024. Cantor Susie and Rabbi Gutmann have already begun to lay the groundwork for a close partnership to support our temple.

Now that we have completed this important hire of a new clergy partner for Rabbi Brent, we turn our attention to other important conversations. On behalf of the Temple Beth Zion Board of Trustees, I invite you to a series of congregational "Town Hall" meetings in April that we will hold in partnership with Executive Director Mark Hayman and Senior Rabbi Brent Gutmann. We will share information, welcome questions, and engage in important discussions about our future.

Topics will include:

- Meeting the needs of our families at High Holy Days
- Supporting the suburban presence that our temple wants and needs
- Recent, planned and proposed improvements at 805 Delaware
- And more...

While all three town halls will cover the same topics, discussions will vary. I strongly encourage you to come, listen, and share your thoughts. I will be sure to summarize key takeaways from these meetings in a future Bulletin column.

Town Halls are scheduled as follows - please note the new date for the Zoom meeting:

- ◆ Sunday, April 7th from 1 - 2:30 PM at 805 Delaware
- ◆ Tuesday, April 9th from 7 - 8:30 PM at the Broder Center, 700 Sweet Home Road
- ◆ (New date) Tuesday, April 16th from 7 - 8:30 PM via Zoom. Watch your email for the Zoom link. If you would like to sign up to receive emails from TBZ, contact Julie at julie@tbz.org or (716) 836-6565.

It is an honor to serve as president during this pivotal moment in the life of our congregation. As we seek to guide our temple, we feel that transparency is essential to our partnership. Please take advantage of one of these opportunities to hear directly from your Board, Executive Director, and Rabbi. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Kenneth Polk

Letter from the Rabbi

Find Your Voice this Passover

The first Seder took place on the night of the tenth plague. Still slaves in Egypt, our ancestors sat and shared their dream of a world where every single person experienced dignity and freedom. For thousands of years, that story has inspired us in myriad ways.

The first printed Haggadah was published in 1482 in Guadalajara, Spain, just ten years before the inquisition and expulsion. Today, countless versions of the Haggadah have been published: the Liberated Haggadah, the Holocaust Survivors Haggadah, the Zionist Haggadah, the Illustrated Haggadah and the 30-Second Haggadah. They fill a shelf in my office!

One of the most usual haggadot, called the "Bird's Head Haggadah," emerged out of medieval Germany. It's called that because all the images of people's heads have been replaced with birds. Each of us yearns to tell this story in their own voice.

Finding that voice is especially important in challenging political and social times. We seek ways to tell stories that keep alive our dream of a better world. This year, especially while hostages are still being held in Gaza and Israel is at war, it is important we come together to tell this story of freedom.

There are two principal haggadot we will use at temple to tell this story this year. The first we will use on the evening of April 11 at our Freedom Seder with our friends from First Shiloh Baptist Church. We will tell stories of slavery and liberation from Jewish and Black perspectives and enjoy a fusion of traditional Passover and soul food. And, on the night of April 23, we will use a second haggadah in a fun, interactive, and casual second night Seder.

This is only a portion of what is happening in April. We are excited to welcome award-winning children's book author Cynthia Levinson on the morning of April 7 for a special program of the Blum Jewish Education Project celebrating Jewish immigrant artist, Ben Shahn, who created Temple Beth Zion's stained-glass windows and fought for social justice through art.

We are on the cusp of realizing many important dreams for a stronger TBZ, a better Buffalo, and a more dignified, safe, just and free world. Wherever you find your voice in our people's story this year, may you have a happy, healthy and meaningful Passover.

Rabbi Brent Gutmann

Pirkei Avot, Wisdom of the Fathers

Members and friends of TBZ are warmly invited to study Pirkei Avot with Rabbi Brent Gutmann on the 6 Wednesday mornings between Passover and Shavuot.

"If I am not for myself, who will be for me? And, if I am for myself alone, then what am I? And, if not now, when?"

"There are three crowns: the crown of Torah; the crown of priesthood and the crown of royalty. However, the crown of a good name is greater than all of them."

10-11:30 AM at the Broder Center, 700 Sweet Home Rd.

Docent Training

Temple Beth Zion is fortunate to be the home of the Cofeld Judaic Museum, the largest Judaic museum in Western New York, and our magnificent sanctuary, both listed on the National Registry of Historic Places.

Various types of community groups and organizations contact us for tours of the museum and sanctuary, and we are in the process of setting up training sessions for those interested in leading tours and becoming a docent.

You don't have to be an expert to become a tour leader and docent. Training is provided for volunteers who are: comfortable in speaking to small groups; able to escort groups throughout the sanctuary and museum; have a flexible schedule – days or early evenings are often most requested; are interested in (and have a love for) the 805 Delaware building.

We are planning to conduct several docent training sessions the week of May 13, 2024.

If you are interested in becoming a docent or would like any additional information, please email Susan Adelman at: susan.adelman@gmail.com.

Leadership Roles

The Governance Committee is encouraging all TBZ members in good standing to consider leadership roles for the 2024-25 year. We are looking for potential new board members and committee members/chairs. We want to make sure that anyone who is interested is given the opportunity to submit their name for consideration. It is the Governance Committee's charge to match interested individuals to our current and projected needs. If you have a particular interest or experience, please let us know.

Please email inquiries to me at plankar@aol.com.

Ken Rogers, Governance Committee Chair

Office Schedule

The Broder Center and Delaware building will be closed Monday, April 8. The Temple Beth Zion administrative offices will be closed Tuesday, April 23 and Monday, April 29. If you have a lifecycle emergency and need to reach a member of our staff, call (716) 836-6565 and follow the instructions.
