TEMPLE BETH ZION

Letter from the President

One of the objectives of the TBZ board is reinvigorating established committees, while also creating some new ones based on our needs and goals. Committee work has always been the lifeblood of our synagogue, as so much of the good work we do can only be accomplished by volunteers. From Gardening to Social Action and from Adult Education and Membership and Engagement to Ritual, Culinary, and Security...we have it all. And, if you are interested in something that we don't already have a working committee for, just reach out and we can figure out how to best support you in your endeavor.

The Culinary Committee is a great example of just that; a dedicated group of people with a common interest who have consistently prepared amazing meals for TBZ events for the last nine months. If you have an interest in helping, please let me know and I can connect you with Joan Taulbee, the Chair of the Committee.

As we turn the calendar and think about new year's resolutions, I ask that you consider getting involved in a committee. For example, we have a group of congregants on our Ritual Committee who work with Rabbi Gutmann to share input on services, as well as plan special services for holidays, including High Holidays. We would love to get some fresh ideas and encourage all members with a passion for our ritual process to please contact me to learn more.

Additionally, it is essential that we re-establish our Security Committee. We have identified needs at both Broder and 805 Delaware and need some congregants to help us address some immediate issues while also building out a strategy for the future. Again, if you are interested or have a background in or passion for security, please contact me directly at president@tbz.org.

Finally, as we think about re-purposing 805 Delaware to ensure a vibrant downtown presence, there is a need to re-think the future of the Fink Auditorium. From the use of the kitchen to re-imagining the physical structure, how do we best leverage this incredible downtown space for ourselves, for the Jewish community, and for the greater Buffalo community. If you have ideas or if you are interested in joining a Fink Auditorium task force, please reach out to me directly.

As we head into 2024, I wish you all a healthy, happy new year, and encourage you to resolve to get involved! Committees usually meet once per month, usually via Zoom, and your input would be most appreciated.

Letter from the Rabbi

Knowing our Neighbors

Author Mark Nepo tells this story in his book, More Together than Alone. He says, "My neighbor and I wave to each other through the trees, though we don't even know each other's name. After a snowstorm, we worm our way out. I admit it's comforting to see another in the open, leaning on his shovel, his breath clouding as he looks again to the sky. There's something primal in knowing that we each have a fire we huddle around. I love clearing the path to our door and leaving the light on.

But if my fire should go out, would he let me in? And for how long?...Different cultures have different ways of holding the question. The Balinese leave food on their steps for the kind stranger they've yet to meet. The Connecticut Yankee trains his daughter in etiquette and social registry... I lean on my shovel in the snow and my neighbor waves back. For which I am glad. And today, I don't feel the need to know his name or story. Yet isn't it in the steps between our friendly wave and our life around the fire that the work of real community waits?"

After a year of living in Buffalo, I've come to believe that our nickname, the City of Good Neighbors, is as much a description of our community as an aspiration for what our community could be. Too often we feel powerless in a world afflicted by crises. But by strengthening the bridges between us and our neighbors, it becomes possible to coordinate and induce real change.

This month contains two holidays which connect us with our neighbors. At MLK Shabbat on January 12, we will welcome Father Russ McDougal from King's College to address us as the Israel-Hamas War looms amid a further surge in antisemitism. Father Russ has been a close friend of my family for over fifteen years, and his experience leading the largest interfaith Catholic institution in Jerusalem for a decade endows him with a unique perspective on this moment. We will also have the opportunity to volunteer with friends from Calvary Baptist Church and Michigan Street Historic African American Heritage Corridor on Monday, January 15 (see page 5 for information).

On Wednesday, January 24, we will hold a Seder with learning and singing in observance of Tu BiShvat. This ancient mystical Jewish holiday celebrates "the New Year of the Trees." Ironically in the heart of winter, nevertheless it has become a natural day to renew our dedication to our planet. Join us!

Still Time for Your Kol Nidre Campaign Contribution

We hope this message finds all our congregants and their families well. Thank you for your generous donations this year and in the past to the Temple Beth Zion Kol Nidre Campaign. We will share the names of all the donors in the February Bulletin.

The 2023 Kol Nidre Campaign is about to close and we want you to know that you still have an opportunity to participate. The funds raised through the Campaign are used for programs and expenses not covered by dues.

As we have said before, the amount of donations is not as important as having full participation from our members. So far, we have received more than 200 donations in an amount nearing our goal of $86,000. We sincerely hope to exceed that goal. This would be a great success and demonstrate the campaign theme of UNITY AND GROWTH.

If you have not yet participated and would like to be included, please either send a check marked for the Campaign or make your donation through ShulCloud (<https://templebethzionbuffalo.shulcloud.com/>).

Again, thank you for all your contributions and assistance over the years.

Ken and Adrienne Graber
Sam and Joni Shatkin
2023-24 Kol Nidre Campaign Chairs

Donation Request

Last month in the Temple Bulletin we asked the congregation to donate new items they may have received but have no use for. Many of us receive pads, calendars, cards, items of clothing and other things in the mail that we don't need. We are delighted to say that a number of items have been donated. We would like to thank everyone who was kind enough to drop items off at Broder. These items went to a number of different places: Ronald McDonald House, homeless people, students and other places. We would like to continue with this during the coming year. Please continue to donate when you receive these items and drop them off at the Broder Center. There is a box at the reception desk to put these items in. Thank you for supporting us and Temple in this endeavor.

Who Has A Connection to Israel

Do you feel you have any connection to Israel? How Jewish do you have to be?

If you do not practice Judaism, do you have feelings for Israel?

Israel is the world's first and only Jewish state.

Israel is regarded by Jews, Christians, Muslims as the Biblical Holy Land.

Have you been to Israel as a Jew or as a member of any other religion?

I didn't think I had any direct connection to Israel. But I certainly do:

- I have traveled to Israel two times as a tourist.
- I had a symbolic Bat Mitzvah ceremony with my fellow travelers.
- I planted trees in the deserts.
- I've seen where Jesus, a Jew, is supposedly buried.
- I have placed my prayers at the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem.
- I've wandered through alleyways among Arabs, Muslims, Christians and Jews.
- Several of my close friends were in Israel this past summer.
- Our cousin in Kenmore has a nephew living in Israel with his Yemeni wife and twin daughters.

I've had many conversations about Israel with non-Jewish friends.

Our Christian friends in Florida participate in inter-congregational events with our Venice Florida synagogue.

Our Temple Beth Zion often joins with Christian organizations in Brotherhood and Good Faith.

Joining all this togetherness, doesn't that mean we are all brothers, sisters and family?

I have and feel a great connection to Israel. Don't you?

Why, why, why can't the world come together in Peace?

Sue Bergman

Mah Koreh B'CRS?

(What's Happening at CRS)

First of all, the staff, students and leadership of CRS hope that 2024 will bring peace!

December was a busy month, with Rabbi Brent teaching about Cyber bullying, Rabbi Alex leading the grade 7 family program and grades 5-7 students participating in a workshop on antisemitism.

Our 6th grade students researched the artist Hanoch Piven and prepared a self-portrait to share on Zoom with 6th grade students in Israel! This is the beginning of a wonderful connection!

CRS celebrated Chanukkah with bazaar, latke making, games, crafts, sufganiot and letter writing to Israeli soldiers. It was so wonderful to see so many parent volunteers have such a great time together frying over 500 latkes!

In January, the students will continue to benefit from the teaching of Rabbis Alex, Brent and Sarah. We look forward to a fun Havdalah Line-dancing on January 6th and a Friday night Superbowl service in February!

Our Ganainu monthly program keeps growing every month, and it is so exciting to meet all the future CRS students and their families.

Sundays at CRS are filled with so many activities and students. It has been my pleasure to give some of our donors a 'tour' so they can see first-hand how effective their donation is. Please contact me to schedule a visit.

CRS is an inclusive, pluralistic Community Religious School that inspires Jewish identity, literacy, and values. Our Rabbis, educators and role models foster an environment where leadership, lifelong friendships and family connections thrive. The Community Religious School serves the students of Temple Beth Tzedek, Temple Beth Zion, Congregation Shir Shalom and unaffiliated families. One community, one community school. CRS provides engaging curriculum which includes Holidays, Israel, Torah, Ethics/Values, Life cycle, History, Food/Cooking, Art and Music. The Hebrew curriculum is taught as private, remote lessons to students from 1st through 7th grade. Hebrew is reinforced during in-class T'fillah time on Sundays. Family programs are scheduled for each grade to follow this year's theme of M'dor L'dor.

For more information on our academic program for students Pre-K through 7th, our Madrichim program for 8th-12th graders, or to become a supporter, please contact me.

Stone Soup Shabbat

The youngest among our community were treated to a special "Stone Soup" Shabbat Service in November. The lesson of how we can strive to share with those around us was reinforced with the invitation to bring donations of non-perishables for the Town Square Food Pantry. The collected donations were gratefully received at the Food Pantry. Thank you to Sam White for making the delivery on behalf of TBZ. Thanks also to the TBZ Culinary Committee for preparing a wonderful dinner!
