The Power of Music

Whether it was TBZ Sunday School, or as a child at Camp Centerland or Camp Lakeland, music played a big role in my Jewish upbringing. And now, as we head into our High Holy Day season, I realize even more what a vital role music plays in Reform Judaism.

Of all the key aspects of music, I think its primary role is enhancing the spiritual experience of the congregation. Music has the power to elevate the soul, and to create an emotional connection. Through the use of melodies and harmonies, congregants can express a range of emotions, from joy to sorrow, making worship more meaningful and accessible to a broader audience. The inclusion of musical instruments, such as the organ, piano, and guitar, further enriches the worship experience. These instruments, to me, help to create an atmosphere of reverence and beauty, making the service more engaging and dynamic.

While I can't play an instrument, nor carry a tune, I strongly believe that singing together as a community fosters a sense of unity and shared purpose, reinforcing the values that are central to Reform Jewish identity. Moreover, music serves as an educational tool, helping to teach Hebrew language, Jewish history, and religious concepts in an accessible and memorable way.

In addition to Rabbi Gutmann's own musical talents, I'm confident the addition of Cantor Susie will help guide us even more in prayer through song. The cantor's role is to inspire participation from the congregation, making music a communal rather than a performative aspect of worship. I know first-hand from the services I've attended, and watched on-line, that this is in fact the case.

Through the integration of musical instruments and a diverse repertoire of songs, music helps to create a vibrant and spiritually enriching environment for congregants. I look forward to seeing you at services and, of course, encourage you to enjoy the music during the High Holy Day season. I also strongly encourage you to reach out to Cantor Susie if you are interested in joining the choir or playing in the band.

Letter from the Rabbi

You Are Good

The weather is cooling, yet our world is still on fire. This month, we will mark the first anniversary of the most shocking atrocity committed against the Jewish people since the Holocaust. The aim of terror is to terrorize, to undermine our confidence and to intimidate. Terror imposes anxiety like a fog of war clouding our judgement, causing us to forget ourselves until the opportunity arises for us to be called back by the still small voice.

Each year as we approach the High Holy Days, the sound of a shofar helps to push away the fog. The voice calls to us. It asks us, have you conducted yourself honorably? Have you been faithful? Have you learned? Have you grown? Have you helped to sustain our world? Do you still believe in redemption?

As we hear the sound of the shofar this year, it is my foremost hope that it reminds us of who we are. Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel reminds us, "We are a people in whom the past endures, in whom the present is inconceivable without moments gone by. The stories of Abraham and Sarah and our other ancient ancestors lasted just a moment, but it was a moment enduring forever. What happened once upon a time happens all the time." (Israel: An Echo of Eternity, page 128)

Rosh HaShanah celebrates not only the birthday of the world, but the opportunity to bear out a new world. This is our belief that what is broken can always be fixed—that tikkun olam can be accomplished. We believe that people are more good on balance than bad—that the image of God inhabits each of us. This is not meant to deny all the wars and all of the cruelty and all of the violence. We won't look away from any of that, but we can still recognize something beautiful about being what we are.

History is soaked in blood. The future probably will be, too. But for every atrocity, there are a thousand small kindnesses that no one noticed. A hundred souls who spent their time loving and caring for each other. A few moments of true grace. Maybe it's only a little more good than bad in us, but even if it is a little, we can shine light. We can be among the righteous. We can listen for the call. We can lift each other up. We will keep the fire at bay with our coolness. Together, we will find our way through the wilderness.

Shana Tovah U'metukah Tikateivu!

May this year be good and sweet,
and may God inscribe all of us in the Book of Life!

Rabbi Brent Gutmann

High Holy Days 5784-5785/2024

May this year be sweet for you and your family. As you prepare for the High Holy Days please be aware of the following:

- Your ticket will be used for all services. Please have yours available to show at the door. Those without tickets will be asked to register their names. Those younger than 24 do not need tickets; those 25 and over must be Temple members or make arrangements for guest tickets.
- Guest tickets for unaffiliated individuals are available for a donation of $54 per person. Guest tickets can be requested at bit.ly/HHD2024GuestTix or by contacting Beth Steinberg at beth@tbz.org or (716) 836-6565, ext. 131.
- All services for Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur will be held at Temple Beth Zion, 805 Delaware Avenue.
- All services in the Sanctuary will be live streamed. The link can be found on the TBZ website and the TBZ Facebook page.

SECURITY

- We take your safety and the security of our facilities seriously. While we work with local law enforcement and have security on-site for all services, we ask you to also be aware of your surroundings. If you see something that seems suspicious or out of place, please say something to a security officer or a member of the TBZ staff. In addition, please remember to bring your ticket to each service you attend.

LUNCH ON ROSH HASHANAH

- Join your TBZ family for a delicious dairy buffet luncheon in the Fink Auditorium following the Morning Service and preceding the Family Service on Thursday, October 3.

Reservations are requested, so we can plan accordingly. Adults (13+ yrs.) $30, Children (3-12 yrs.) $18 (No charge for anyone 2 yrs. and under). Walk-ins will be accommodated as space permits. Please use the QR code provided or go to bit.ly/TBZRHLunch5785.

TASHLICH TWO WAYS

- Members of the Ritual Committee will lead Tashlich at Hoyt Lake, across from the AKG, following the Rosh HaShanah Morning Service on October 3.
- Join us in Glen Park at 5 PM on Thursday, October 3, for a 10-minute meaningful Tashlich ritual. We will sound the shofar and toss bird seed into the water, as we symbolically rid ourselves of the transgressions of the last year. NOTE: Glen Park strictly prohibits the throwing of bread or breadcrumbs as it is a hazard to the ducks and other wildlife. Please do not bring these items. Everyone is welcome to celebrate the New Year with this beautiful ritual.

Glen Park is at 224 Glen Ave., north of Main Street and south of Glen Avenue, between Mill Street and E. Spring Street/Rock Street. We will meet below the waterfall. Parking is available off of Glen Avenue, near Nature Play at Glen Park -- a playground designed to encourage children to climb, crawl, and let their imaginations run wild.

CEMETERY MEMORIAL SERVICE

- A memorial service will be held Sunday, October 6, at 11:30 AM in Forest Lawn Cemetery (section Z). Rabbi Brent Gutmann will lead a brief service in memory of beloved members of our families. This service offers comfort to the living while remembering our departed loved ones.

YOM KIPPUR FOOD DRIVE

- On Yom Kippur, the most important fast day of the Jewish year, we make a powerful statement to help those who have no choice about hunger and need assistance. We encourage you to bring non-perishable food for donation to the Town Square Food Pantry. Donations will be accepted in the coat room at 805 Delaware on Yom Kippur Day, October 12. Please be sure to check expiration dates on food items.

PRAYER BOOKS

- If you plan to attend services remotely and wish to request prayer books for Rosh HaShanah, Yom Kippur, or both, please contact the Temple office at (716) 836-6565. Books will be available for pick up at the Broder Center.

Message from Your Co-Chairs

Dear Fellow Congregants:

Now is the time of the year when we give thanks for all that we have and remember the needs of our temple and our congregation.

All members of Temple Beth Zion will soon be receiving information about the 2024 Kol Nidre Campaign. This annual campaign is very important to the mission and membership of TBZ. It allows us to have the many programs and services that we all need and can now enjoy regardless of our personal finances and situations.

When you receive your Kol Nidre Campaign materials, please send in your pledge and donation. It is very important that each congregant make a pledge to the campaign. Pledges of all sizes are encouraged and appreciated. The amount is not as important as your participation.

Thank you for your support and dedication to our Temple. Shanah Tovah U'metukah - Have a Good and Sweet Year. We look forward to again greeting you in person this year at our High Holy Day services.

Music Notes

It has been quite an amazing summer of music making, praying and playing, learning, connection building, and creating community through music. We kicked off our year with a bang on Thursday September 5 with our new In-Person Hebrew learning program, Aleph Champ, right here at TBZ. We meet on Thursdays starting at 4/4:30 and going til 5, and it is never too late to sign your child up (grades 1-7).

The connections continue as we celebrate the opening day of our Community Religious School on Sunday, September 15. I enjoyed meeting the CRS staff and leading them in song during Staff Development on September 8 (photo below). I am thrilled to be leading music and Tefilah, alongside Shir Shalom's Cantor, Arlene Frank, and working in concert with our Rabbis to create a spirit-filled and meaningful connection in our school.

We will be starting a Community Kid's Choir which will meet each Sunday following school, at Shir Shalom. If you know of any children grades 1-6 who like to sing, be together, and have fun doing it, send them our way please, beginning Sun. Sept. 15 at 11:30 AM.

Our brand new Adult Volunteer Choir sounds like angels as we prepare to lead our congregation in song for these High Holy Days. They will make their "debut" on Selichot, Friday, Sept. 28. This special service begins with music from the Jay-Sharptet, starting at 7 PM. The Choir will join Rabbi and me in helping you as a congregation to participate in our worship! Be prepared to be inspired to sing along during moments you may never have thought possible.

We are very thrilled to announce that Chicago-based collaborative musician, Paul Dykstra, will be accompanying our High Holy Days services this year at the Organ and piano, alongside Buffalo superstar pianist Jarret Izzo, who will be accompanying the choir and many beautiful settings of our prayers. If you would like to take part in any way, know that my door is always open, and I'm thrilled to help you find your voice! Ross, Abigail, Zev, and I wish you a wonderful and sweet new year, filled with connection and community.

Late registrations are still being accepted this month on our website www.crsbuffalo.com where you will also find the latest updates and information.

Welcome Ginny!

Ginny Stewart has been hired as Administrative Coordinator at Temple Beth Zion. Ginny has been an asset from the start and a great addition to our team! She has extensive office experience and a varied background, including as a professional photographer.

Outside of work, Ginny enjoys spending time with her husband and three daughters. "I am very excited to join the TBZ community and look forward to meeting all of you!"

Ginny will be on hand at the Delaware building during High Holy Day services. Please stop by to say hello and give her a big TBZ welcome!

Would You Like to Sponsor a Shabbat Morning Kiddush?

For several months, at least once a month, congregants like you have hosted informal bagel kiddushes following our Shabbat Morning services. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Debra Chernoff and Larry Rubin, Anna Marie and Gary Richmond, and Joan Taulbee for providing the opportunity for our congregants and visitors to enjoy a bite while socializing and mingling in a relaxed setting after services.

Hosting a Shabbat Morning Bagel Kiddush is a joyous and rewarding way for you to give back to TBZ. We warmly invite any of our congregants to host, whether to celebrate a special occasion or simply to enjoy a pleasant nosh with chaverim (friends).

Don't let the thought of hosting overwhelm you. This is nothing like planning a B-Mitzvah reception! What you decide to provide could be as simple as a basket of bagels and a plate of shmears, or you can jazz it up with hummus, veggies, fruit, and cookies. The choice is yours, although we do have a few house rules you'll need to follow.

If you are interested in hosting a Shabbat Morning Bagel Kiddush, or learning more about it, please get in touch with Sue Stone, our Clergy Administrative Coordinator, at sue@tbz.org. Sue will be happy to provide you with a step-by-step guide and will help identify a date on the Temple calendar that works for you and TBZ. Everybody at services will be delighted – and we think you will be, too.

Come decorate our Sukkahs

Join the Ritual Committee as we decorate the Sukkahs at both our buildings. Families are welcome to join us and we encourage your children to make decorations for us to hang.

We will decorate at Broder on October 15 from 4:30-6 PM. A light dinner will be provided. If you would prefer to join us in the city, we will decorate at the Delaware building on October 16 beginning at 12:30 until both Sukkahs are decorated. A light lunch/snack will be provided.

Please contact Sue Goldberg (schruttberg1@aol.com/ (716) 867-6012) or Kathy Ellis (ellis-donner@ecc.edu) if you are interested in decorating.

Sukkah and Chill!

Sunday, October 20

After the Bills game on Sunday, October 20, come spend some time in the sukkah at Rabbi Gutmann's home. From 5 - 7 PM you can enjoy the opportunity to get to know Rabbi Brent and his family. Get to know Cantor Susie and her family, too. Most of all, enjoy the opportunity to get to know each other better!

It's a chance to mingle, eat, and hang out on a relaxing late afternoon in the Fall with other Temple Beth Zion teens and their families – to connect, or to re-connect, with friends old and new. Let's take this informal opportunity to share our visions for what TBZ can provide for our teens. We'd love to hear from you, our teens and parents of teens, what you are looking for from us... maybe even a trip to NYC in the Spring?

As we observe this solemn anniversary, Jewish Buffalo and friends will gather to honor the resilience and unity of Jewish people everywhere, and remember the precious lives lost.

Cemetery Tours

Members of TBZ (including our President, Ken Polk, seen in the photo below), were among those who took advantage of the Buffalo Jewish Federation Cemetery Corporation's private tours of local Jewish Cemeteries, including the old Beth Zion Cemetery. The Cemetery Corporation provided tour opportunities through a partnership with Explore Buffalo.

The tours highlighted Jewish History, Immigration, Architecture, and notable achievements that have taken place since Jewish life began in the Greater Buffalo Niagara Region two centuries ago.
